VOLUNTEER CONDUCT PLEDGE

Volunteers in the Bright Horizons program are vitally important and highly valued. You will have opportunities to meet families of riders you work with, as well as helping in special events. We welcome you to our program and will give you the necessary training needed to assist our riders, care for the horses, and become capable representatives of the BHR mission. The following guidelines outline what behavior is expected while performing as a BHR Volunteer.

Volunteers must:

- Complete an application and liability release before working with horses and/or riders.
- Attend a volunteer training session.
- Be at least 14 years of age, or obtain special permission from BHR staff and parental consent.
- Remain committed throughout the quarter you signed up for, and to call ahead when you are unable to make it to your class.
- Not possess, use, or be under the influence of alcohol and/or illegal drugs while in any BHR class or volunteering at any BHR event, meeting, or activity.
- Not use obscene or discriminatory language in any BHR class, event, meeting, or activity.
- Dress conservatively and appropriately at all times when on BHR premises as while volunteering for a BHR event.
- Handle BHR horses as you are trained at Bright Horizon, which includes to never strike, hit, slap, jerk, or discipline the program horses in any manner.
- Report the mistreatment of the horses to BHR staff immediately.
- Respect individual confidentiality, rights, safety, and property of others whether they are staff, riders, or fellow volunteers.
- Not discriminate in any practices on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, political association, sexual orientation, age, mental condition or disability.
- Always inform the Program Director if there is a change of address, phone number or emergency contact.
- Inform staff immediately if you have an injury or condition that would compromise safety to yourself, the rider, or others during your scheduled volunteer time.
- Turn off cell phones to avoid being distracted while with a rider or working in the barn.
- Follow established processes to report horse behaviors which are out of the norm to your instructor or therapist before you leave the Bright Horizon property for the day.
